INTRODUCING NEW CHICKEN AND ANIMAL TREATS

All Natural:

Mealworms

Soldier Flies Larvae

Minnows (small fish)

Crickets

Grasshoppers

Veggie Blends

Healthy, Protein-Packed Treats

When it comes to feeding your animals high-quality, all-natural foods, especially birds, hamsters, turtles, and hamsters, you want to give them something that's good for them and packed with vital nutrients. Dried mealworms are a safe, natural resource that supports your pet or animal's growth, breeding habits, and daily diet; and it's delicious too.

Rich in Nutrients

Feeding barnyard birds like chickens dried mealworms can benefit you, too. Chickens with proper nutrients can lay healthier eggs that are higher in essential fatty acids.

Flies and Mosquitoes are everywhere! We can help. Whether it's BUG or RODENT, we can help with these issues!
